Ohio) ($10 million); In re USX Securities Litigation (W.D.

In the Playmobil Case, Murray, Frank & Sailer was co-lead counsel, representing a class of purchasers of Playmobil products. Murray, Frank & Sailer was successful in obtaining Pa.) ($9 million); Miller v. Bonmati (Del. Ch.) ($9.9 million); Feiner v. SS&C Tech., Inc. (D. Conn.) ($8.8 million).

ANTITRUST

The Firm has also represented plaintiffs in federal and state class actions arising out of applicable antitrust laws, including the Infant Formula, Brand Name Pharmaceutical, Nasdaq, VISA/Master-Card, Playmobil, and Disposable Contact Lens cases.

The firm is currently counsel in many cases involving Sherman Act violations including: In re Time Warner Cable Com.; In re American Express; In re Linens Antitrust Litig.; In re Thomson Corp. Antitrust Litig., In re Hydrogen Peroxide Antitrust Litig.; and Slattery v. Apple Computer Inc.

certification of a plaintiff class in an oft-cited opinion and settling the case on favorable terms to the class. The Court, at the fairness hearing, “compliment[ed] both counsel in the fine job done negotiating with each other and also the legal work that has been submitted to the Court.” In the Disposable Contact Lens case, Murray, Frank & Sailer represented a class of purchasers of disposable contact lenses in California, and eventually obtained reversal in the California appellate courts of a denial of class certification.

CONSUMER PROTECTION

In the consumer protection area, the firm has represented as lead counsel classes of consumers in cases involving, inter alia, wrongful billing practices and poor service by wireless communications providers, wrongful billing practices by credit card companies, banks and retailers, mislabeling of imported olive oil, brokerage fees imposed with no or insufficient notice, Medicaid overcharges, faulty automobile seat heaters, and artificial sweeteners. Among its cases of note, the Firm recently recovered benefits worth $40 million in Naevus Int'l v. AT&T Corp., et al., a consumer class action brought in New York State Supreme Court on behalf of consumers who subscribed to AT&T's Digital One Rate wireless service. In 2005, the firm settled with Volkswagen of America, forcing a recall of all 2003 and 2004 Volkswagen Jettas for faulty automobile seat heaters. The firm is also national counsel in cases against Splenda and Listerine.

ERISA

MFS is prosecuting numerous actions in federal court against employers on behalf of employees for employee investment fund mismanagement; knowingly offering; marketing, and selling improper investments to employees for their retirement accounts; and knowingly misrepresenting the prospects of the employees' company in order to sell company stock to them. The firm is currently co-lead counsel in the Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc. ERISA Litigation (S.D. Fla.)
